

This year, as in previous years, our echocardiography lab has been accredited by the Intersocietal Commission for the Accreditation of Echocardiography (ICAEL). The ICAEL is a well recognized organization which closely examines the quality of echocardiography laboratories and grants accreditation to organizations which meet its high standards. Central Bucks Cardiology is proud to have achieved this distinction, which reflects our dedication to provide quality care to our patients.

